

what is
Four Corners
creative ?

At Four Corners Creative in Manhattan, our teachers engage with kids through private lessons, studio and specialized group classes, and intensive summer camps. We focus on discovering and encouraging their unique personalities and gifts.

Four Corners Creative is the option when you want your child to learn more than steps... and learn more about themselves.

After several years of working professionally in theater, Kate Meek followed her dreams of educating children. Four Corners Creative was designed to provide fun and exciting classes in the New York City area, helping kids to dance, sing, act and grow.

Our teachers are passionate about helping children develop dance, music, and acting skills, while fostering friendships and building character and self-esteem.

Classes are available at our studio on East 86th Street, as well as at your school or organization. Contact Kate to find out more.

available classes

Hip-Hop: This high-energy class combines a technical warm-up, fun floor combinations and current hip-hop choreography. Students learn dances to contemporary songs, enhancing coordination, rhythm and confidence.

Acting Class: Work with trained professionals to develop performance and audition skills. Through monologue work, improvisation, scene study and cold readings, students prepare to take the stage. The session culminates in a performance of monologues and scenes learned throughout the semester.

NEW! CrossFit: Build muscle and self-confidence with dance and Pilates combined with strength and interval training. A great companion to any of our dance classes, alone or combined.

NEW! Creative Movement: Unleash your child's creative side! Students will be given many opportunities to develop their imagination and problem-solving skills while using movement to strengthen their coordination. Your child will learn how to tell stories by using their bodies, learn numbers through music, and find solutions with the help of friends.

NEW! Jazz/Tumbling: Through the art of jazz dance and tumbling, your child will begin to develop coordination, memorization and social skills. She will learn how to twist, jump, bend, cartwheel, turn, gallop, and skip their way home. By the end of the class, students will learn a little dance where they can show off all their sweet moves to friends and family.

Freestyle Dance: Current dance moves are taught to your favorite songs, incorporating hip-hop, theater dance and funk. A fun and energetic class, great for beginning dancers to build cardio conditioning, flexibility and self-confidence.
